

The emergency light system must be operated at least semi-annually or in accordance with the manufacture's recommendation. (ILHR 14.41)

The emergency light system batteries must be capable of supplying enough power to cause the lamps to illuminate no less that 1 1/2 hour. (ILHR 16/NFPA 700-12 (f))

Year: _____ Test One

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____

Test Two

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____

Year: _____ Test One

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____

Test Two

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____

Year: _____ Test One

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____

Test Two

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____

Year: _____ Test One

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____

Test Two

- Everything in order
- Problem see comments

Comments: _____

Initials of Person Conducting test: _____